Two lonely feet

As a child she had a dream about her life
What it would turn out to be
She'd wander down the meadows and streams
As a child she had a dream
The girl grew up and encountered life
She got lost, she got fired, thrown out and couldn't get rehired
So she'd wander down the crowded street
Never felt lonelier, never felt further from her childhood dream.

CHORUS:

When everything falls you see through it all
When everything falls and you're broken down with no lights around
And you've lost the ground beneath your two lonely feet

She started living her life in disbelief
Filled with cynicism, distrust and grief
Too disappointed by her broken seams
Not to mention her long lost dream.

CHORUS:

BRIDGE:

The vicious circle drew her in as she chose as she breathe in bitterness
Over the little girls dream.
